PatCappsCoveyCollegeof Allied Health Professions

Chair and Program Director - Department of Physician Assistant Studies

The University of SouthAlabamaandits PatCappsCoveyCollegeof Allied HealthProfessionseeksa dynamicand resourceful leadtor serve as ChairndProgram Directoof theDepartment of Physician Assistant Studies.

In addition to providing effective leadership and management of the Physician Assistant Studies department, he Chair and Program Director is expective dassist the Dean in strategically implementing or vision for the College and the program.

Responsibilities include departmental administration, overseeing the accreditation process and compliance with professional organization requirements, teaching, scholarilyities, university/communityervice, andmaintenance of a positive department of a positive department

Physician Assistant candidates must be a certified Physician Assistant (RMth current NCCPA certification, plus a current icense or eligibilityas a physician assistant the State of Alabama A master's degree is required. An earned doctorate in a related field is preferred.

Preference will be given to applicants with experience in an academic setting; a track record of teaching excellences cholarly productivity; successin leadership roles; and five or more years of clinical experience.

The Physician Assistant program at the University of South Alabama has been nationally accredited since 1996 with a strong history of student academic success and employment post-graduation. Student learning is supported byaccess to a human cadaver laboratorylaborative interprofessional education opportunities, advanced instructional software applications, as well as the exceptible Adlealth Simulation program located in an adjoining building within the health focused corner of the beautiful University of South labama campus Faculty within the PA program have fully integrated the Health Simulation resources into student learning and assessment to create practical and efficient means of enhancing the student experience.

The University of SouthAlabamawas founded in 1963 and is located in historic Mobile, Alabama, on the Gulf Coast, between New Orleans and the Florida panhandle. Mobile is recognized as a vibrant business, cultura and recreational hub, close to the white sand beaches of the Gulf of Mexico. The University is a public institution with the research university/high research activity Carnegie classification, and enrolls more than 13,000 students in nine colleges and schools. https://wouthalabama.edu/aboutusa/

A completeapplication should include the following:

- 1. A letter of interest
- 2. CurriculumVitae
- 3. Statement leadershiphilosophyandresearch interests;
- 4. Three professionate ferences with contact information, title, institutional affiliation, email address and direct phone numbers. (No references will be contacted without written permission from the candidate.)

Application review will begin as soon apossibleand will continue until the position is filled. Please send application materials to:

Dr. Elizabeth Adams, Associate Dean for Graduate Affairs and Faculty Development, Pat Capps Covey Collegeof Allied HealthProfessionsHAHN 4003, 5721USA Drive North, Mobile,AL 36688, 251-445-9361, eadams@southalabama.edu

The University of South Alabama is an EO/AA employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religion, age, genetic information, disability, protected veteran status ny other applicable legally protected basis.