Right to obtain a list of the disclosures You have the right to get a list of protected health information disclosures, which is also referred to as an accounting. You must make a written request to the Privacy Officer to obtain this information.

The list will not include disclosures we have made as authorized by law. For example, the accounting will not include disclosures made for treatment, payment and health care operations purposes (except as noted in the following paragraph). Also, no accounting will be made for disclosures made directly to you or under an authorization that you provided or those made to your family or friends. The list will not include other disclosures, including incidental disclosures, disclosures we have made for national security purposes, disclosures to law enforcement personnel or disclosures made before April 14, 2003. The list we provide will include disclosures made within the last six years (subject to the April 14, 2003 beginning date) unless you specify a shorter period.

The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. You may be charged for providing any additional lists within a 12-month period.

Right to choose how we communicate with you You have the right to ask that we send information to you at a specific address (for example, at work rather than at home) or in a specific manner (for example, by email).
